

Programme of Parent Workshops Spring Term 2018

January	Workshop	What it is about	Aimed At	Leader
Wednesday 17 th 8.15am & 18.30	Learning Behaviours	What is a growth mindset? How can I help change and develop the mindset of my child? What are the 8Cs and how are they taught in school? Do they apply at home as well? What is S.O.L.E.? How is this used in the classroom? How is this used for homework?	All parents	Abigail White Deputy Head & English Leader
Tuesday 23 rd 8:15am & 18:30 Library (rescheduled from Nov.)	Exploring a book with your child	How do I read with my child? What kind of questions should I be asking? What books should we read together?	All parents	Abigail White Deputy Head & English Leader
February	Workshop	What it is about	Aimed At	Leader
Sunday 4 th 18:30pm	Learning Behaviours	What is a growth mindset? How can I help change and develop the mindset of my child? What are the 8Cs and how are they taught in school? Do they apply at home as well? What is S.O.L.E.? How is this used in the classroom? How is this used for homework?	All parents	Abigail White Deputy Head & English Leader
Tuesday 13 th 8.15am	Phonics (a repeat, for those that missed the first one)	How do we teach phonics at school? Why do we do it like this? How can I support the development of my child's phonics at home?	Any interested parent but predominantly EYFS and KS1	Abigail White Deputy Head & English Leader
April	Workshop	What it is about	Aimed At	Leader
Tuesday 10 th 18:30	Philosophy for Children	What is Philosophy for children? Why teach children to be independent thinkers? How can I stimulate this at home?	All Parents	Abigail White Deputy Head & English Leader

The workshop will run for 45 to 60 minutes unless otherwise stated.

To sign up for these workshops please contact my administrator Patricia Parkinson on 17728886 extension 16 or email office.leadership@nadeenschool.com to book your place.

On arrival, please report to the front office where you will be directed to the location of the workshop.