Code of conduct for Learners

All children at Nadeen School are responsible for upholding the following code:

- To show respect towards classmates, other students, and staff at all times, and to be respectful of our school's diverse and international culture.
- To respect the property of others, neither taking it nor using it without the consent of the owner.
- To respect the dignity and rights of others by avoiding verbal abuse, whether name-calling, unkind remarks, or unfavourable comparisons.
- To be a team player and support class and school activities.
- To use language which is appropriate to the occasion and to refrain from inappropriate language at all times.
- To behave in a responsible and tolerant manner, and refrain from fighting, bullying, and dangerous or violent action directed towards others.
- To work sensibly and diligently in class, assisting others when necessary, and to follow all instructions given by the class teacher.
- To work to the best of their ability at all times, and to remember that help, assistance, and support is always available if necessary, from other classmates and staff.

Code of Conduct for Educators

By accepting a position at Nadeen School, staff are responsible for upholding the following code:

- To show respect at all times towards the children, staff, parents, and visitors to the school, and to be respectful of our school's diverse and international culture.
- To respect each learner's right to develop their own abilities to the fullest.
- To recognise that parents are partners in the education process and promote open communication between the two.
- To set high expectations for behaviour, conduct, and communication by behaving in a professional, courteous, caring, and sincere way in and around the school.
- To work to their utmost ability to instill a love of learning and exploration in the learners at Nadeen School, and to remember that help, assistance, and support is always available from other staff and the school administration.
- To always maintain a high academic standard within the class.
- To accept responsibility for ensuring the safety of learners during the school day.
